A LETTER FROM THE PRESIDENT

What a year for Millennium. Progress is not possible without change and we met the challenge.

We will finish 2015 delivering 13 new 2016 model year Millennium Luxury Coaches with innovative design and custom features not seen before. Our customers are an integral part of the design of our custom coaches. Be sure to check out the Connections section of the magazine for the story of one of our very special customers who took on the experience designing their coach starting with the empty shell.

Industry changing progress was made in our new floor plan designs. We added three new floor plans including one for the X3. For the H3 we created a floor plan that offers the owner the best of everything including a quad slide, private shower, larger main vanity sink, and stateroom super slides. Wait until you see the new line of wood veneers allowing us the ability to offer 4 distinct finishes from gloss, semi-gloss, satin or flat! 2015 saw us build two quad slides with flat floors. We engineered a way to increase the walkway and the slides are able to reduce the overall weight of the coach by 1,000 pounds. This was liked so well we will be building a few more flat floors in 2016.

Innovation and customer service lead the Millennium culture. Starting with the 2017 model the Tyron tire protection system will be standard on all quad slides. Other standard features include a rain sensor that automatically retracts the awnings when the rain starts and a state of the art cockpit sound system along with the latest LED lighting technology.

We continue to add qualified personnel to the service team with better training, processes and procedures.

Please take a minute to read the meet the cast section where you will meet Scott Puch, Millennium's Service department Manager. He has been instrumental along with Willie and Steve in shaping the Millennium service department to be one of the best in our industry.

Mark your calendars for the Millennium open house March 2nd to the 6th. As always, this rally promises a great time with great food and great friends. Please save the date and, of course, RSVP as soon as possible to secure a spot at the Millennium campground. We are excited for all that 2016 is going to bring.

I hope your travels bring you by to personally see what sets Millennium Luxury Coaches apart from rest.

“THE ONLY CONSTANT IS CHANGE”

Heraclitus of Ephesus, the ancient Greek philosopher, was known for his resolve on ever-present or eternal change as being the fundamental heart of the universe. It was his Theory of Flux, i.e., the Cosmos is dynamic; all things therein are subject to change. This theory is illustrated by his statement that “everything flows”. He expressed this idea of change and mobility in terms of the continuous flow of the river which always renews itself. It is not possible for a man to step on the same stream twice.

LETTER FROM ABROAD

Alex Figueroa

As promised, I am writing this letter from halfway around the world, coming to you live from Switzerland folks! This semester has been a whirlwind of travel, homework, and crazy new memories. So far this semester, I've traveled to Barcelona for Day of the Dead, Scuba dived with the giant clams in Greece, I've jumped off a waterfall at Interlaken, and spent time with the Germans at Oktoberfest in Munich, I've ridden a Camel in the Moroccan desert, and I've gotten a little too personal with the gypsies in Paris, but I have to say by far the most eye opening experience was that of my trip to Austria.

Many of you have heard on the news about the Syrian refugee crisis, but it becomes all too real when your train is delayed because of the sheer number of people trying to cross the border, or when you pass hundreds of men, women, children, mothers, brothers, sisters, and fathers, sleeping on the ground, trying to comfort one another from the cold, that we actually understand the gravity of the situation. I thought about my warm bed, the mac and cheese my mom makes every year for the Holidays, and about how these people are grateful just for an apple, or an extra pillow.

Whatever your political views may be, we can all agree that we are so blessed to live in a country where we are protected from warfare, and where we have such amazing opportunities to better ourselves. Traveling across Europe has been amazing (and expensive, thanks Dad) but I can honestly say that it will be a relief to be back in my home country, where I know the people and the places a little better. I will be bringing home with my new memories, a couple souvenirs, and an extreme love and respect for the Land of the Free.

This Christmas I am especially thankful for my home (and my indoor plumbing), mostly because I know that no matter where I go, I'll have a safe place to land, and a loving Millennium family to welcome me back. This thanksgiving, I'll make sure that I remember the people who don't have a Turkey for the table. A sense of Humility has always encompassed what we stand for here at Millennium, and I'm learning to be better at it every day.

With Love, From Europe

Alex

CONNECTIONS!

Meet Karen and Stan Baggett!

Karen and Stan started shopping around for a Prevost motor home conversion. They both had ideas of what they wanted on their next coach. After visiting other converters they realized that the coach they wanted wasn't out there. When they came to Millennium, it was love at first sight, not just with the coach but with the company and its culture. Stan indicated he was impressed with the can-do attitude of the design team, the quality of workmanship, and the family atmosphere. It was not long after arriving at the factory that they had found their answer, to build their dream coach.

The journey began after they selected the perfect shell, a triple slide with a private center bath floor plan. They admit feeling a little intimidated and did not know where to start. However that all changed after they spent two days with the Millennium design team. At last, they could see their vision start to develop. Once the initial design draft was set in motion they were off traveling again in their current motor home with excitement knowing the next trip would be in their brand new custom built Millennium. Karen felt at ease because the design team stayed in contact with them during the entire process from the status reports to other helpful suggestions that would make the coach perfect.

After five months of production and a couple visits to Millennium they found all their requests were met! They were ecstatic to take off in their new 2015 Millennium luxury coach and confessed the building process was easier than they anticipated. The finished product was even better than they could have imagined. Karen was surprised when the Millennium crew stayed with them during the move in process and while she was putting her belongings away Millennium was happy to make additional adjustments to accommodate their things.

These two love birds have a home base in Indio, California. They sold their house and live full time in their coach where they are still able to functionally run their business.

Christmas Brunch!

After the gifts are opened, sit down to a delicious brunch that the whole family will love.

EGGNOG HOT CHOCOLATE

Ingredients:

- 2 ½ cups milk
- 12 ounces bittersweet chocolate chips
- 4 cups eggnog
- 1 tsp vanilla extract
- ¼ cup coffee flavored liqueur, Kahlua (optional)
- Whipped cream (optional)
- 8 cinnamon sticks, garnish (optional)

Directions: In a medium saucepan, melt chocolate in milk over medium-low heat. Remove from heat, and let stand for 2 minutes. Whisk the chocolate until melted and smooth. Stir in the eggnog, and heat gently over low heat until very warm but not boiling. Remove from heat, and stir in the vanilla and coffee liqueur. Pour into mugs, and serve with whipped cream and a cinnamon stick garnish.

BREAKFAST PIZZA

Ingredients:

Cooking spray
 1 pound bacon, chopped
 2 (12 ounce) cans refrigerated biscuits (10 biscuits per can)
 1 tsp butter
 12 eggs
 1 small onion, chopped
 ½ green bell pepper, chopped
 2 cups shredded cheddar cheese
 Salt and pepper to taste

Directions: Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Lightly spray a 9x12 inch backing sheet with cooking spray. Cook the bacon in a large skillet over medium heat, stirring often, until the bacon is browned and crisp, about 10 minutes. Remove bacon pieces with a slotted spoon, and drain on paper towels. Open up the cans of biscuits, separate the biscuits, and arrange onto the prepared baking sheet so they touch. Press the biscuit dough down to seal them together into a crust that covers the baking sheet. Bake in the preheated oven until the crust is slightly cooked and very lightly browned, about 5 minutes. Do not overbake. Remove from the oven. Melt the butter in a large nonstick skillet over medium heat until the foam disappears. Beat the eggs in a bowl, and pour the eggs into the hot skillet. Use the spatula to lift and gently stir the eggs just until set, but still moist, 3 to 4 minutes. Arrange the lightly scrambled eggs on the semi-baked biscuit crust. Top with the cooked bacon, onion and green pepper; spread the cheddar cheese all over the pizza. Season to taste with salt and black pepper. Return to oven, and bake on the top rack until the cheese is melted and bubbling and has begun to brown, about 10 more minutes. This recipe can be very versatile depending on your preferences, like cracking an egg on top instead of scrambling.

BAKED COCONUT FRENCH TOAST

Ingredients:

Cooking spray
 16 (1 inch thick) slices French bread, cut diagonally
 1 ¼ cups light coconut milk
 1 ¼ cups egg substitute
 ½ cup white sugar
 1 tbs vanilla extract
 1 ½ cup sweetened flaked coconut

Directions:

Spray the inside of the 9x13 inch baking dish with cooking spray. Arrange bread slices in a single layer in the prepared baking dish. Whisk coconut milk, egg substitute, sugar and vanilla extract together in a bowl until evenly combined; pour over bread. Turn bread over to coat. Cover baking dish with plastic wrap and refrigerate, 8 hours to overnight. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Remove plastic wrap from dish. Turn bread slices over and sprinkle coconut over bread; let stand for 15 minutes. Bake in the preheated oven until egg is set and coconut is golden, about 30 minutes.
